

How I work

Firstly I need from my client a high resolution and well lit photograph, so that I can see as much detail as possible!

I create a sketch...

I then embellish the sketch...

Next the artwork is 'stretched' using a traditional method with a wooden board, water and gum tape. Once dry I can begin to paint using watercolours...

